SLAYS YOUNG MAN BEFRIENDING HIM

Fred Matelich, 65, Fatally Wounds Louis M. Barnhardt, Jr., 21, at Indianapolis Street Corner

AGED MAN CONFESSES

No Apparent Reason Except Intense Hatred for "All Good Looking Young Fellows"

Indianapolis, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—A confession that he shot and killed a stranger to him, Louis M. Barnhardt, Jr., 21, a time keeper, who was doing him a good turn, was given to police today by Fred Matelich, 65, 12 hours after Barnhardt was fatally wounded on a busy street while his fiance waited for him to return to her side.

Matelich admitted he shot Barnhardt after the latter had guided him through traffic in an east side business district. His confession was made in German, the only tongue the aged man speaks without difficulty.

Earlier, Matelich had disclosed part of his story in broken English, revealing an intense hatred of "all good looking young fellows," because, he said, he suspected his wife from whom he had been estranged for eight months, of being intimate with young men, although she repeatedly had denied his accusations.

Matelich admitted Barnhardt was an utter stranger to him. He could not explain why he shot the young timekeeper, but said he was "crazee" because of worry over the suspicions he harbored against Mrs. Matelich, who is much younger than he is.

The confession dissipated an earlier theory to which police had clung persistently that Barnhardt, gripping the old man's arm as he guided him, may have been mistaken for a dry agent making an arrest.

Building on this belief, police had arrested two other men, Thomas Naumark, 35, pool room owner who lives in the same building as Matelich, and William Gudabriko, 37, a frend of Naumark. A revolver with one bullet discharged—the same calibre as that which killed young Barnhardt—was found on Naumark. In a raid on Naumark's apartment, police seized a gallon of wine.

Naumark said he kept the wine for his own use. Matelich in his confession admitted the revolver was his property. As a result, arrangements were made to release Gudabriko and Naumark.

Matelich said he had been estranged from Mrs. Matelich for eight months. He declared he had suspected her of being too friendly with younger men, but had been unable to confirm his suspicions, although he questioned her and their daughter.

Barnhardt's finance, Miss June Williams, 21, was ill at her home, prostrated by the tragedy which occured while he was escorting her and her sister and a friend to their home.

"Louis was too good," the girl sobbed.

DIVER SENT DOWN TO S-4 WRECKAGE

Rescue Operations Begun at Scene of Submarine Sinking, With Little Hope of Finding Any Alive

NO ENCOURAGEMENT SEEN

Two Additional Pontoons Arrive, in Preparation to Being Taken out to The Wreck

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Diving operations at the scene of the sinking of the submarine S-4 were resumed this afternoon.

A single diver went down from the U. S. S. Falcon, base for the underseas operations, shortly after one p. m.

Up to a little before 2 p. m. he had reported nothing to the surface that would give encouragement to the few still holding out hope of saving any of the six men imprisoned alive when the submarine sank.

Active efforts towards salvage of the sunken submarine and relief from the underseas tomb of the 40 men who went down with her, were resumed today with sea and weather favorable.

The mine sweeper Falcon, base ship for the operations, went to its station beside the buoy marking the spot where the submarine went down and with the mine sweepers Lark and Mallard began maneuvering into position.

Two additional pontoons arrived today. Just before noon they were placed aboard the derrick Century in preparation to being taken out to the wreck. Both derricks were in the inner harbor. Other ships on the scene were the Bushnell and the S-8.

At mid-morning the ships were moved out into a compact group about the two yellow buoys that mark the fore and after parts of the hulk 100 feet below.

ELKS AND SEN. WATSON PURCHASES HELP FUND

Tuberculosis Christmas Seals and Health Bond Receipts Pass $1,000 Mark In Today's Report

ONLY HALF OF LAST YEAR'S

A $25 Health bond purchased by the Elks lodge of this city and a $10 bond taken by Senator James E. Watson helped to put the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal and Health Bond fund over the $1,000 mark today.

The fund still was only half of last year's record, however, and seal workers were exerting every effort to stimulate sales as the season for the little health stickers nears an end.

Reports are yet to come from the township campaigns, but it is not believed that they will be sufficient to put the fund up to last year's mark. For that reason an extra effort is being made to carry the appeal to every resident of the community.

There were five $5 health bonds, in addition to the bonds mentioned above, in the report today, which is as follows:

CONFOUNDED BY THE DELAY

"King Ben" Followers Not Unshaken In Belief In His Resurrection

Benton Harbor, Mich., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Confounded by the delay, but unshaken in their belief that the promised resurrection will yet occur, members of the House of David religious colony today planned the funeral of their ruler, King Benjamin Purnell.

The cult's 800 members yesterday gathered at Diamond house where Purnell's body lay. They waited anxiously for their "king" to rise from the dead. When the hour of the expected resurrection passed, members consented to removal of the body to an undertaker's establishment in accordance with the state health laws.

A mausoleum will be erected on the colony grounds in which the self-proclaimed "brother of Christ" will rest, the members of the colony said, "until he arises to lead us on to everlasting life."

Purnell died last Friday of tuberculosis. Members of the colony withheld the announcement until Monday.

FRANKLIN COUNTY JURY GIVES JUDGMENT OF $1

Victory of John Morris of This City In Brookville Trial In Reality A Defeat

INVOLVED TRACTOR SALE

A decision rendered in a Rush county case late Tuesday afternoon, by a jury in the Franklin circuit court at Franklin, resulted in the winner of the case actually being the loser, as far as the judgment was concerned.

The case was that of John B. Morris of this city against Kenneth Kelso of near Gings, and the action was a complaint on the sale price of a farm tractor, in which $450 and interest, or a total demand of $600 was made.

The jury awarded the plaintiff judgment for one dollar, and according to law in such cases the costs are assessed against the plaintiff, which more than offset the verdict.

The case involved the resale of a farm tractor. It was filed in court here some time ago, and venued to Brookville for trial. The case started Friday, and was carried over until Monday and Tuesday of this week, going to the jury Tuesday afternoon about one o'clock, with the verdict being rendered about seven o'clock at night. Many witnesses from here, Gings and Decatur county attended the trial.

LEGION RECEIVES AN APPEAL

State Commander Asks Aid For Destitute In Indiana Mining City

An appeal for assistance, equal to that of the Near-east appeal, only right within the borders of Indiana, was received this morning by the local post of the American Legion. The request for assistance comes from Paul McNutt, commander of the legion in Indiana.

The John T. Miller post at Bicknell, a mining city, has been swamped with destitute cases this winter, due to the fact that the mines have been closed, and more than 1,000 families are in need. The request is for financial aid, clothing of all kinds, especially for children, food, canned goods and meats. A committee from the local post will be named to accept donations, and any contributions can be made by calling Harry Petry, local commander, or by giving direct to any member of the local post.

USED DISGUISE OF A WOMAN, BELIEF

Edward Hickman, Positively Identified as Slayer of Marion Parker, Eluded Los Angeles Police

HAD USED FLAPPER DISGUISE

Two Men Questioned in Futile Search For "Revenge Murderer" But Prove Of No Value

By DAN CAMPBELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Los Angeles, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Baffled, after more than 40 hours of futile search for Edward Hickman, suspected murderer of 12 year old Marion Parker, police today turned to the theory that he may have escaped by disguising himself as a woman.

Hickman, the officers said they were told, appeared a number of times as a female impersonator in private theatricals, and acquaintances said he prided himself on his ability to disguise himself as a flapper.

Two men were questioned today in connection with the Parker killing.

Earl Smith, a dentist was arrested on a charge of suspicion of theft. What caused detectives to connect him in the Parker case was not known.

Gaylord Branaman, arrested Monday when he telephoned a radio station that he was "the fox," was questioned again, though detectives were satisfied he had no connection with the case.

Perry M. Parker, father of the dead girl has positively identified Hickman from pictures as the man to whom he paid $1,500 in exchange for his daughter's body, police said today.

The girl's father said the lower part of the kidnaper's face was concealed by a handkerchief when he paid the ransom but that the features exposed were those of Hickman.

The accused youth had been employed in the bank of which Parker is assistant cashier until his displayed in the bank of which Parker met the kidnaper he did not recognize the former bank clerk.

"I was thinking of only one thing," Parker said today. "That was my daughter. I did not connect the kidnaper who appeared at the appointed place with Hickman at all."

A formal charge of murder and kidnaping was sworn out against Hickman following the identification by Marion's father.

Assessments for Hodges Branch Improvement Finally Adopted by the City Council

AFFECT 1100 HOUSEHOLDERS

Bids of Water Softener Unit at Water and Light Plant Taken Under Advisement

The assessment roll for Hodges Branch sewer as primarily adopted two weeks ago by the city council, was finally adopted Tuesday night, with a few slight modifications, and remonstrances were overruled.

With final action taken upon the assessment roll, it is now to be certified to the city treasurer, who will notify in writing the eleven hundred property owners setting forth the amount due, and all such payments must be made by January 20, which is 30 days after the final action taken by the council.

On amounts of ten dollars and under, cash must be paid within the 30 day period, and on amounts over that sum the property owners have the right to sign waivers and take ten years for payment, but as the amounts are all small, it is believed that most will be paid in cash. The deferred payments carry 6 percent interest, which during the ten years time will amount to as much as the original assessments.

Objections were made to the assessments by the B. & O. railroad, whose remonstrance set out that they did not own any real estate, and that they had an agreement with the city not to be assessed because of granting the city permission to go beneath their tracks. Such an agreement, it was stated, had been discussed, but had not been signed.

The Dill Foundry company and Will Dill, objected to their assessments, setting forth several reasons, including the fact that the assessments were too high, and that the ditch was not large enough, and was not constructed according to the plans and specifications.

Several oral remonstrances were heard from persons living in the southwest part of the city. City engineer Stewart appeared and recommended some slight changes in the assessment roll, and a motion was passed in which remontrances were overruled, and the assessment roll finally adopted with the few modifications.

Three firms were present at the meeting to submit bids on a water softener unit for the spray pond equipment at the water and light plant. The bids varied in prices up to $4,500 depending upon different types and sizes for the equipment. After hearing representatives of the concerns, the council decided to take the bids under advisement until the first meeting in January, which will be January 3.

A petition was presented from James Adams and other residents living in the Belmont addition asking for street lights, and some repairs to the streets. As the streets have never been improved, the city cannot put expense on them for upkeep, but some relief may be given. The petition was referred to the water and light committee and the street commissioner, with power to act.

A resolution was passed in which

FORMER FIREMAN IS ARRESTED

Raymond Ratekin Accused of Stealing and Damaging Auto

Raymond Ratekin, a former member of the fire department, was arrested Tuesday by Sheriff Coons, on a warrant filed recently in the circuit court, charging him with vehicle taking. He is charged with having stolen an automobile from a man by the name of Frantz, living in West First street, who made the charges against him. He is alleged to have taken the car, damaged a wheel, and returned it to a place within a block of where it was stolen.

Ratekin, according to the officers, contends that he had been given permission to use the car, and had not stolen it. He was in jail today pending arraignment or release on bond.

The holidays are busy days for BIG FOUR men

While you are at home enjoying your Christmas dinner, thousands of BIG FOUR men will be at their posts of duty—on the trains, in the yards and signal towers, and out along the right of way, doing their part in keeping the trains moving on schedule.

Railroad service never stops. For many men in the operating forces the Christmas holidays bring more responsibility and longer hours, because of the increase in travel, as well as the heavy movement of goods.

Christmas home-comings and Christmas gifts depend on the regularity of railroad service and the loyal and unselfish team work of a great army of railroad men.

BIBLE THOUGHT —FOR TODAY—

Bible Thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

The Master Builder: Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. Psalm 127:1.

Prayer: "The Lord is just, a Helper tried."

Prohibition and Health

With six and one-half years of prohibiton in the United States, the ordinary layman is speculating as to what effect prohibitoin has had on the health of the nation at large.

In other words, is national prohibition a detriment or a benefit to the health of the country? A discussion of this kind by medical authorities has been under way, but after all is said and done, the issue still remains unsolved.

In the controversy, an educator in Columbia University brings an array of medical evidence to prove that alcohol consumed even in moderation, not only is unnecessary to healthful human diet, but is injurious to brain, nerves and body.

He cites statistics on the American death rate to show that prohibition, by lessening consumption of alcohol, has improved the general health in this country.

An educator from the University of Cincinnati, and a former president of the American Medical association, who concedes that excessive use of alcohol is harmful and may result fatally, presents other medical evidence which tends to show that alcohol helps to form the very tissues of our bodies, and is required in moderate quantities by most people to keep the human machine running smoothly.

While medical science is debating the quesiton, the layman may also be interested to know that life insurance companies hold highly important the alcoholic tendencies of an applicant as the part of a rigid medical examination. If life insurance companies, which are expert in matter of human mortality, make it a point to investigate an applicant's habits as to moderate or excessive drinking, then it shows clearly that they don't place much faith in the argument of the educator who asserts that alcohol builds body tissue.

On the contrary, insurance companies refuse to consider an applicant who is addicted to the use of alcohol, and every applicant is investigated by a disinterested person, unkown to the company's agents, as to his tastes for strong drink.

If an insurance company, after years of study on prohibition, won't take a risk with a person of alcoholic tendencies, then there is surely evidence for the layman to take into consideration, without any argument based on medical observations.

Not To Be Postponed

Among educational campaigns being conducted under various auspices is one giving every man and every woman a reminder of the duty of making a will and of appointing competent and responsible executors. The importance of this should be plain, yet thousands die yearly without leaving wills. Under the circumstance, their property is disposed of according to state laws, which cannot undertake to deal with the families in accordance with individual requirements. Frequently injustice results, with much suffering entailed. This emphasizes the duty of making a will. Men and women should realize that only in this way can their estates be distributed as they would wish.

The chief trouble, however, is simply neglect. Some who realize their duty to have their wills drawn keep putting off the discharge of it to "another time." But a fatal accident or a sudden illness affecting their minds and rendering them mentally incompetent to the end may occur and, obviously, make it impossible to repair the neglect. While the normal expectation of those in their prime is to live "to three score and ten" or more, it is only common sense and common prudence to recognize the uncertainty of life.

Although the drawing of a will naturally takes into consideration the certainty of the coming of death some time to the testator, it should constantly be kept uppermost that the whole purpose of the instrument is the service of life; the care of the "dear ones" of the decedent who remain behind or the cause of humanity in general.

The drawing of a will ought to be recognized as a thing not to be "put off."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican
December 21, 1912

Merrill B. McDaniel, 21 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McDaniel, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock at his home near Henderson after a short illness from tuberculosis. He is survived by a widow and his parents.

Unless about forty dollars are contributed to the Daily Republican by next Monday night it will fall short of last year's total. The sum of $7.25 was added to the fund today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Logan entertaned a number of relatives at a family dinner at their home southeast of Rushville yesterday.

Adam V. Spivey, 53 years old, former postmaster and well known resident of this city died this morning about ten o'clock in the Sexton Sanitorium, following a second operation for gall stones. Mr. Spivey had been in a serious condition for the last two days and death was expected.

Mrs. Ulie Friend gave a shower last evening at the home of her father, William Harton, honoring Miss Nelle Adams whose marriage to Will Leach will take place in the near future.

Members of the Social club are making extensive arrangements for the New Year's ball which will be given Tuesday evening, Dec. 31, in the club house. The dance promises to be one of the society events of the season.

The Rushville high school team was defeated last night at Shelbyville by the overwhelming score of 37 to 4. The locals were outplayed and failed to make a single field goal during the entire game. The four points were the result of free throws by Griffin. Shelbyville has one of the best teams in the state and Rushville was lucky to come out as well as they did.

The three-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Powers of near Milroy is recovering from the effects of eating arsenic tablets which she discovered while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lyons.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Congressmen, who are subjected to contemptuous criticism both by intelligent persons who know what they're talking about and nitwits who don't, are often more to be pitied than blamed.

One phase of the system by which men and women are made into representatives is so queer as to be almost ridiculous.

Many of the current crop of congressmen, old and new, have spent much more time campaigning and waiting for their seats than they will now spend in said seats.

Long before the Congress met early this month, they had been forced to begin their campaigns for the next Congress, which assembles two years hence in December, 1929.

* * *

A CONGRESSMAN retains office 15 months after he is seated. Very often, his campaign had to be begun two years and more before he was seated. Thirteen months elapse between his election to the next Congress and frequently he began his campaign more than 13 months previous to the election, which means that numerous members of the Seventieth Congress had to step off the stump and onto the floor of the House.

For a specific example, take Rathbone of Illinois. Rathbone was elected a congressman-at-large in November, 1926, after being forced to get set late in 1925 for the April, 1926, primaries. On December 5, 1927, he took his seat. But months previously, he had to look to his political fences when Mayor Thompson of Chicago promised revenge for Rathbone's opposition in the mayoralty election.

In October, 1927, Mrs. Medill McCormick announced her candidacy and began a vigorous campaign which put his political life in jeopardy. Hence, Rathbone is and has for some time been working to win in the April, 1928, Illinois primary, after which he will have a six-month campaign for election ahead of him. If he is licked, he will go out of office a year from next March and Mrs. McCormick, or a Democrat, will come to the hill a year from next November.

All of which, among other things, places a discount on a candidate's campaign speeches. One who has already served may run largely on his record, but for one who would make promises for his next term or for his non-incumbent opponent, it is a difficult thing to talk to the voters sincerely and convincingly about what he will do from 15 to 25 months ahead.

If he wins, then even after his election he must sit and twiddle his thumbs while the defeated incumbent sits through another session of Congress and casts "lame duck" votes which need take no inspiration from the wishes of his constituents who defeated him. He can't possibly make a legislative promise which he can begin to put into effect in less than 13 months, even if he announces a new platform on election eve, which he does not.

* * *

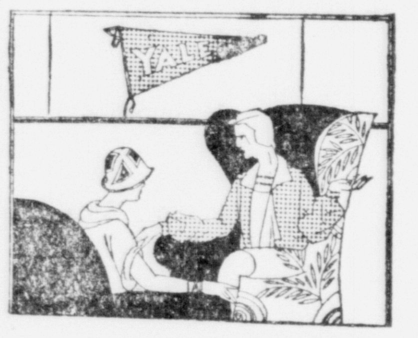
IN one year, or two, conditions obviously change. Issues aren't what they were. National or local sentiment may shift. And it may be too much to ask a self-respecting candidate to bind his mind and his vote for the more than three years that may elapse from the beginning of his campaign to the end of his term. Few protest this to the voters, however. Being principally concerned with getting in, most of them who face any trouble over nomination or election will promise almost anything.

Senators are elected for six-year terms instead of two-year terms as representatives are. Every short session, of course, finds some of them in their seats although they have already been voted out.

The system, of course, is not so tough on the individual senator who meets competition as for the individual congressman who must fight for his seat. Nevertheless, the proposed Norris amendment which would cut out the "lame duck" session and bring elected members of both houses into session within two months of their election has often been passed by the Senate, but has never even been voted on by the House.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

A point about 50 miles southeast of Chicago, is the industrial center of the United States. The center of population is less than 200 miles from this same place.



"So your son is on the football team. What position does he play?"

FAN CITES SEVERAL CAUSES FOR LOST INTEREST

Concerning the recent comment offered in this column about poor attendance at games, not only here but in other cities, there has been much talk as to the whys and wherefores of the apparent lost interest. Following is a list of reasons, submitted by a local fan, one who knows his basketball:

1. Too many gymnasiums in the townships.
2. Too many games each Friday night that attract attention from fans who might attend here.
3. Not consistent winners.
4. Admission too much for quality of basketball played.
5. Gymnasium located too far from main section of city, which keeps people away, especially in bad weather.
6. Attendance poor at independent games, due to the fact that they start too late. High school games begin on time.
7. Independents charge too much for the class of teams which they usually play—those from Indianapolis.
8. Apparent indifferent attitude which high school players show against teams. If they win, it's all well and good, and if they lose, its the same way. If they get ahead a few points, its good policy to stop playing and let the other team catch up.

✣—H—✣

While the above points may include some of the reasons why basketball is not as popular in every community as it was a few years ago, yet the state tourney will turn away the crowds. This might be an indication that the basketball interest demands class—real genuine talent.

✣—H—✣

WATCHES NEW GYM UNDER CONSTRUCTION

A. R. Trester, secretary of the I. H. S. A. A., and sometimes called the czar of Indiana basketball, is watching the erection of the new gymnasium in Attica with more than usual passing attention. Coffing's idea of installing moveable baskets so that tests could be made as to whether the 72 foot floor is long enough or the 90 foot court would be better is what Trester is keeping an eye on. Trester is one of these wise owls who is not set in his ideas. Anytime something that will help the organzation, Trester is for it.—Hardwood Hits in Greencastle Herald.

✣—H—✣

While Mr. Trester is watching over the distance between goal posts, he might for the benefit of Rushville, also consider making the hoops larger and the balls smaller!

YOU'RE TOO LATE CARTHAGE!

Charlottesville has at last been defeated. Wilkinson turned the trick, 47 to 39. Carthage was expecting to turn the trick this week.

NEW COLUMN STARTED

"Crumbs" is the title of a new basketball column to appear in the Wabash Plain Dealer. The full title is Crumbs from basketball—its bred in Indiana. So now we can follow the teams up north.

GAMES FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night will find Marion playing down at Vincennes, Logansport at Bloomington, Richmond at Frankfort, Washington at Franklin Martinsville at Shelbyville, Seymour at Columbus, Newcastle at Muncie and own own game with the Lions down at Greensburg.

We Have Been This Way Many a Time—How About You?

After the Frankfort game Friday night we could have died happily, with never another look at a basketball contest.—Sport Shorts, Anderson.

BASKETBALL AS IS:

Greencastle, home of the Tiger Cubs, the Putnam county court house and DePauw University, smacks the Lord High Alicetown 27-18! By nine points, mind you. And Vincennes had just defeated Washington!—Bedford Mail.

✣—H—✣

MAYBE WE WILL HE-HAW SOME TIME

Richmond fans are hee-hawing loudly at the expense of Rushville. Morton of Richmond, which like Lebanon has been used largely as a football by opposing basketball teams this year, lost several games by top heavy scores before playing Rushville. Morton's record caused a Rushville scribe to say: "The Big Ten isn't so big after all." But that was before Morton went down to Rushville and crocked the Lions Saturday night.—Between Games, Lebanon.

✣—H—✣

ALMOST THE SEVENTH WONDER—

And Hittin' 'em gets another jolt. The lowly Morton Red Devils of Richmond, pull the David-Goliath act and slay Rushville 28 to 24. Will wonders never cease to cease!—Markin' 'em up, Newcastle.

✣—H—✣

Milroy will go over to New Salem for a game Friday night, and as Milroy has had a two week vaction, they will be hard to stop, but New Salem will give them a hard game before the 40 minutes have passed.

FIRESTONE TEAM HAS A PERFECT RECORD

Unless Marmons Mar It Tonight, Ohio Invaders Will Come Here Unblemished

BOASTS STAR PLAYERS

The famous Firestone team of Akron, Ohio, which will appear here Thursday night in a basketball game against the local Independents, will play the fast Marmon team in Indianapolis tonight, and unless the Marmon team wins from them, they will come here with a perfect record for the State Champs to attempt to block.

More recent word from their manager today stated that the Firestone team last week defeated Akron University, 39 to 22 and defeated Wooster college 35 to 22. The manager stated that they could just as easily doubled their score on either of those teams. One other victory this season was that against Muskingum college, 33 to 27, and last Saturday Muskingum was defeated by Ohio State university, one point, 27 to 26, which indicates that the team coming here Thursday night is far above most college teams.

The visitors will line-up with Gant and Wakefield at forwards; Winston at center; Griggs and Nyikos at guards. In addition they carry three or four subs who are highly rated. The Rushville team will present their usual line-up and will probably start with Lakin and Richeson, forwards; Alexander center; McNamara and Kaufman guards. In addition there will be Robinson, Osborne, Brickler and Hodges for subs.

SEVEN TRAPPED MINERS FOUND DEAD AFTER BLAST

Spark From Motor Believed Cause Of Fatal Explosion In Mine At Stiritz, Illinois

RESCUE SQUADS AT WORK

Johnston City, Ill., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Seven miners who were trapped by explosion in the Cosgrove-Meehan coal mine at Stiritz last night were found dead more than a mile underground on the 250 foot level, officials of the company reported today.

Cause of the explosion had not been officially determined, but experienced miners expressed the opinion that a spark from Lavender's motor may have ignited gas. Bodies of the seven men were badly burned.

Rescue crews from here and nearby counties were at work today under the direction of county mine inspector J. W. Plumlee and state director of mines A. D. Lewis. Bodies of the dead men were expected to be brought to the surface before noon.

All but one of the seven men—Lavender—were married and leave families. Scores of miners' relatives gathered at the shaft during the night waiting for word from below. Deputy sheriffs on duty preserved perfect order.

The mine in which the tragedy occurred was opneed in 1916 and employs 550 men. It has been worked continuously since the recent renewal of the Jacksonville wage scale, and last night's explosion was the first in its history.

Delay in bringing out the bodies, it was said, was caused by damage to the brattice and drops in the shaft at the time of the explosion.

TO DEVOTE LIFE TO A BATTLE ON PROHIBITION

George Remus Declares He Will Fight To Remove Volstead Law From The Nation's Statutes

WILL PROVE HIS SANITY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—George Remus, if and when he finally is freed, intends to devote the remainder of his life to removal of the Volstead act from the nation's statutes.

Found not guilty of the murder of his wife "on the sole ground of insanity," Remus may remain in jail as long as a month before his case is called before William H. Leuders, probate judge. In probate court Remus must prove that he now is sane, else be confined to a state hospital.

"But I am sane enough," Remus assured the correspondent.

"Give me a few hours with medical books and I can make a fool of any alienist in the land. Jurors returned this verdict only because the court would not permit an unqualified acquittal."

Remus, raised to national prominence by his huge bootlegging activities, said he loathed the laws that made him wealthy.

"Prohibition made me rich but the same law brought me more horror than any other man alive," Remus said. "I have read Zola; I have read Tolstoi,—or at least of him—and no writer can imagine such torments as I have known."

RED-HAIRED GIRL IS ATTRACTION AT TRIAL

Spectators Take Lunches To Carroll Circuit Court Room For Lloyd Kimble Hearing

TESTIMONY IS STARTED

Delphi, Ind., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Spectators at the trial here of Lloyd Kimble charged with the murder of Daniel Sink brought lunches into the Carroll circuit courtroom today to make sure they would have good seats in the expectation that red-haired Jeanette Taylor, who "told on" Kimble, and who is the state chief witness, will take the stand today.

Introduction of testimony was started by the prosecution Tuesday. But it was merely a curtain-raiser—the witnesses identifying photographs of the ruins of Sink's home where his charred body was found the morning of Aug. 24 last. The crowd is waiting for the testimony of the Taylor woman, who told authorities in accusing Kimble that she slipped from bed where she lay beside her farm hand husband,, Jesse Taylor, and accompanied Kimble to the Sink home.

State witnesses heard so far include Grocer C. Sink, son of the dead man; sheriff Riley Sink and deputy sheriff Frank Sink, distant relatives; Mrs. Mary Milroy, who testified as to the arrangement of the Sink home at the time it was sold to Sink by her first husband, A. C. Cohee, in 1919.

Charles Baker of Camden, the undertaker who buried Sink, testified there was evidence of a blow on the head. Mrs. Taylor told authorities Kimble struck Sink on the head and then set the house afire.

THE WAY IS PLAINLY MARKED

The tire-buyer of today can easily get lost in the maze of selling competition. At every turn, he is met by confusing claims and special propositions.

No wonder he is bewildered. With everyone claiming to have the best, how is he to choose wisely?

One outstanding fact will guide him. It can not be said about any other tire:

MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND

Goodyear Tires hold their place on merit alone. Their popularity increases steadily year after year.

Goodyear makes more tires than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear uses 50% more rubber than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear makes the tire that is popularly known as "The World's Greatest Tire" — the long-wearing, powerful, tractive balloon tire with the new-type All Weather Tread.

We feel a great satisfaction in representing a manufacturer and a product of such unquestioned leadership.

We take pride in giving the World's Best Service on the World's Greatest Tire — seeing that you get out of it all the extra mileage built into it at the factory.

Come in and let us show you the New Goodyears. We have your size, and your type, at your price.

Movies.

Marion Davis At Her Best

"The Fair Co-ed," which opened a 2 day engagement yesterday at the Princess Theatre, is the sort of film that makes one optimistic for pictures. In fact, it gives the picturegoer much more than he can rightfully hope to see in one film production.

It shows the charming Marion Davis at her best—and that's some best!

It is a screen vehicle, magnificently handled from a directorial angle and with a cast of players that works hard—and successfully to give every ounce of their support to the star.

Marion has the role of an American co-ed and she looks the part as she puts it over in a most convincing manner.

Johnny Mack Brown, who appears opposite the star, works as zealously on celluloid as he used to work with the pigskin when he was star halfback a couple of season's back on the University of Alabama's football team. Johnny has looks, screen personality and talent. He shows all three and has the advantage of having a new face for confirmed movie-goers to gaze upon.

Jane Winton plays convincingly as the sympathetic heavy and Thelma Hill does some good work as a dumb co-ed pal of the heroine.

Sam Wood should be congratulated on the fine manner he has handled this production from a directorial standpoint. He has even outdone what he did when directing "Rookies." The picture is based on the play by George Ade and Gustav Luders.

"In A Moment of Temptation"

You will enjoy "In a Moment of Temptation."

Whatever may be your opinion as to the literary quality of Laura Jean Libbey's novels, it is an undeniable fact that her stories indicate an unusual insight into the hearts and feelings of humanity in genearl, and "In a Moment of Temptation," which opened a 2 day engagement today at the Castle Theatre, fully lives up to the author's reputation.

Leading roles in this production are in the hands of Charlotte Stevens and Cornelius Keefe, and both acquit themselves with high honors —the former as the little shopgirl who is wrongly imprisoned for theft, and the latter as a young man of wealth whose interest in her gradually ripens into deepest love.

"In a Moment of Temptation" is also interesting in that it marks the return to the screen of Marie Walcamp, formerly the serial queen of motion pictures, but for the past seven years devoted wholly to housewifely duties. Tom Ricketts plays one of the most prominent roles in the picture—that of "Grandpa" Gage, who sits in his wheeled chair and, unknown to his domineering granddaughter, rules the destinies of his household.

Other important roles are played by Kit Guard, John McKinnon and Grant Withers, and the photoplay has been well directed by Philip Carle.

Of its kind, "In a Moment" is a little gem.

SLAYS YOUNG MAN BEFRIENDING HIM

Fred Matelich, 65, Fatally Wounds Louis M. Barnhardt, Jr., 21, at Indianapolis Street Corner

AGED MAN CONFESSES

No Apparent Reason Except Intense Hatred for "All Good Looking Young Fellows"

Indianapolis, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—A confession that he shot and killed a stranger to him, Louis M. Barnhardt, Jr., 21, a time keeper, who was doing him a good turn, was given to police today by Fred Matelich, 65, 12 hours after Barnhardt was fatally wounded on a busy street while his fiance waited for him to return to her side.

Matelich admitted he shot Barnhardt after the latter had guided him through traffic in an east side business district. His confession was made in German, the only tongue the aged man speaks without difficulty.

Earlier, Matelich had disclosed part of his story in broken English, revealing an intense hatred of "all good looking young fellows," because, he said, he suspected his wife from whom he had been estranged for eight months, of being intimate with young men, although she repeatedly had denied his accusations.

Matelich admitted Barnhardt was an utter stranger to him. He could not explain why he shot the young timekeeper, but said he was "crazee" because of worry over the suspicions he harbored against Mrs. Matelich, who is much younger than he is.

The confession dissipated an earlier theory to which police had clung persistently that Barnhardt, gripping the old man's arm as he guided him, may have been mistaken for a dry agent making an arrest.

Building on this belief, police had arrested two other men, Thomas Naumark, 35, pool room owner who lives in the same building as Matelich, and William Gudabriko, 37, a frend of Naumark. A revolver with one bullet discharged—the same calibre as that which killed young Barnhardt—was found on Naumark. In a raid on Naumark's apartment, police seized a gallon of wine.

Naumark said he kept the wine for his own use. Matelich in his confession admitted the revolver was his property. As a result, arrangements were made to release Gudabriko and Naumark.

Matelich said he had been estranged from Mrs. Matelich for eight months. He declared he had suspected her of being too friendly with younger men, but had been unable to confirm his suspicions, although he questioned her and their daughter.

Barnhardt's finance, Miss June Williams, 21, was ill at her home, prostrated by the tragedy which occured while he was escorting her and her sister and a friend to their home.

"Louis was too good," the girl sobbed.

DIVER SENT DOWN TO S-4 WRECKAGE

Rescue Operations Begun at Scene of Submarine Sinking, With Little Hope of Finding Any Alive

NO ENCOURAGEMENT SEEN

Two Additional Pontoons Arrive, in Preparation to Being Taken out to The Wreck

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Diving operations at the scene of the sinking of the submarine S-4 were resumed this afternoon.

A single diver went down from the U. S. S. Falcon, base for the underseas operations, shortly after one p. m.

Up to a little before 2 p. m. he had reported nothing to the surface that would give encouragement to the few still holding out hope of saving any of the six men imprisoned alive when the submarine sank.

Active efforts towards salvage of the sunken submarine and relief from the underseas tomb of the 40 men who went down with her, were resumed today with sea and weather favorable.

The mine sweeper Falcon, base ship for the operations, went to its station beside the buoy marking the spot where the submarine went down and with the mine sweepers Lark and Mallard began maneuvering into position.

Two additional pontoons arrived today. Just before noon they were placed aboard the derrick Century in preparation to being taken out to the wreck. Both derricks were in the inner harbor. Other ships on the scene were the Bushnell and the S-8.

At mid-morning the ships were moved out into a compact group about the two yellow buoys that mark the fore and after parts of the hulk 100 feet below.

ELKS AND SEN. WATSON PURCHASES HELP FUND

Tuberculosis Christmas Seals and Health Bond Receipts Pass $1,000 Mark In Today's Report

ONLY HALF OF LAST YEAR'S

A $25 Health bond purchased by the Elks lodge of this city and a $10 bond taken by Senator James E. Watson helped to put the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal and Health Bond fund over the $1,000 mark today.

The fund still was only half of last year's record, however, and seal workers were exerting every effort to stimulate sales as the season for the little health stickers nears an end.

Reports are yet to come from the township campaigns, but it is not believed that they will be sufficient to put the fund up to last year's mark. For that reason an extra effort is being made to carry the appeal to every resident of the community.

There were five $5 health bonds, in addition to the bonds mentioned above, in the report today, which is as follows:

CONFOUNDED BY THE DELAY

"King Ben" Followers Not Unshaken In Belief In His Resurrection

Benton Harbor, Mich., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Confounded by the delay, but unshaken in their belief that the promised resurrection will yet occur, members of the House of David religious colony today planned the funeral of their ruler, King Benjamin Purnell.

The cult's 800 members yesterday gathered at Diamond house where Purnell's body lay. They waited anxiously for their "king" to rise from the dead. When the hour of the expected resurrection passed, members consented to removal of the body to an undertaker's establishment in accordance with the state health laws.

A mausoleum will be erected on the colony grounds in which the self-proclaimed "brother of Christ" will rest, the members of the colony said, "until he arises to lead us on to everlasting life."

Purnell died last Friday of tuberculosis. Members of the colony withheld the announcement until Monday.

FRANKLIN COUNTY JURY GIVES JUDGMENT OF $1

Victory of John Morris of This City In Brookville Trial In Reality A Defeat

INVOLVED TRACTOR SALE

A decision rendered in a Rush county case late Tuesday afternoon, by a jury in the Franklin circuit court at Franklin, resulted in the winner of the case actually being the loser, as far as the judgment was concerned.

The case was that of John B. Morris of this city against Kenneth Kelso of near Gings, and the action was a complaint on the sale price of a farm tractor, in which $450 and interest, or a total demand of $600 was made.

The jury awarded the plaintiff judgment for one dollar, and according to law in such cases the costs are assessed against the plaintiff, which more than offset the verdict.

The case involved the resale of a farm tractor. It was filed in court here some time ago, and venued to Brookville for trial. The case started Friday, and was carried over until Monday and Tuesday of this week, going to the jury Tuesday afternoon about one o'clock, with the verdict being rendered about seven o'clock at night. Many witnesses from here, Gings and Decatur county attended the trial.

LEGION RECEIVES AN APPEAL

State Commander Asks Aid For Destitute In Indiana Mining City

An appeal for assistance, equal to that of the Near-east appeal, only right within the borders of Indiana, was received this morning by the local post of the American Legion. The request for assistance comes from Paul McNutt, commander of the legion in Indiana.

The John T. Miller post at Bicknell, a mining city, has been swamped with destitute cases this winter, due to the fact that the mines have been closed, and more than 1,000 families are in need. The request is for financial aid, clothing of all kinds, especially for children, food, canned goods and meats. A committee from the local post will be named to accept donations, and any contributions can be made by calling Harry Petry, local commander, or by giving direct to any member of the local post.

USED DISGUISE OF A WOMAN, BELIEF

Edward Hickman, Positively Identified as Slayer of Marion Parker, Eluded Los Angeles Police

HAD USED FLAPPER DISGUISE

Two Men Questioned in Futile Search For "Revenge Murderer" But Prove Of No Value

By DAN CAMPBELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Los Angeles, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Baffled after more than 40 hours of futile search for Edward Hickman, suspected murderer of 12 year old Marion Parker, police today turned to the theory that he may have escaped by disguising himself as a woman.

Hickman, the officers said they were told, appeared a number of times as a female impersonator in private theatricals, and acquaintances said he prided himself on his ability to disguise himself as a flapper.

Two men were questioned today in connection with the Parker killing.

Earl Smith, a dentist was arrested on a charge of suspicion of theft. What caused detectives to connect him in the Parker case was not known.

Gaylord Branaman, arrested Monday when he telephoned a radio station that he was "the fox," was questioned again, though detectives were satisfied he had no connection with the case.

Perry M. Parker, father of the dead girl has positively identified Hickman from pictures as the man to whom he paid $1,500 in exchange for his daughter's body, police said today.

The girl's father said the lower part of the kidnaper's face was concealed by a handkerchief when he paid the ransom but that the features exposed were those of Hickman.

The accused youth had been employed in the bank of which Parker is assistant cashier until his displayed in the bank of which Parker met the kidnaper he did not recognize the former bank clerk.

"I was thinking of only one thing," Parker said today. "That was my daughter. I did not connect the kidnaper who appeared at the appointed place with Hickman at all."

A formal charge of murder and kidnaping was sworn out against Hickman following the identification by Marion's father.

Assessments for Hedges Branch Improvement Finally Adopted by the City Council

AFFECT 1100 HOUSEHOLDERS

Bids of Water Softener Unit at Water and Light Plant Taken Under Advisement

The assessment roll for Hodges Branch sewer as primarily adopted two weeks ago by the city council, was finally adopted Tuesday night, with a few slight modifications, and remonstrances were overruled.

With final action taken upon the assessment roll, it is now to be certified to the city treasurer, who will notify in writing the eleven hundred property owners setting forth the amount due, and all such payments must be made by January 20, which is 30 days after the final action taken by the council.

On amounts of ten dollars and under, cash must be paid within the 30 day period, and on amounts over that sum the property owners have the right to sign waivers and take ten years for payment, but as the amounts are all small, it is believed that most will be paid in cash. The deferred payments carry 6 percent interest, which during the ten years time will amount to as much as the original assessments.

Objections were made to the assessments by the B. & O. railroad, whose remonstrance set out that they did not own any real estate, and that they had an agreement with the city not to be assessed because of granting the city permission to go beneath their tracks. Such an agreement, it was stated, had been discussed, but had not been signed.

The Dill Foundry company and Will Dill, objected to their assessments, setting forth several reasons, including the fact that the assessments were too high, and that the ditch was not large enough, and was not constructed according to the plans and specifications.

Several oral remonstrances were heard from persons living in the southwest part of the city. City engineer Stewart appeared and recommended some slight changes in the assessment roll, and a motion was passed in which remonstrances were overruled, and the assessment roll finally adopted with the few modifications.

Three firms were present at the meeting to submit bids on a water softener unit for the spray pond equipment at the water and light plant. The bids varied in prices up to $4,500 depending upon different types and sizes for the equipment. After hearing representatives of the concerns, the council decided to take the bids under advisement until the first meeting in January, which will be January 3.

A petition was presented from James Adams and other residents living in the Belmont addition asking for street lights, and some repairs to the streets. As the streets have never been improved, the city cannot put expense on them for upkeep, but some relief may be given. The petition was referred to the water and light committee and the street commissioner, with power to act.

A resolution was passed in which

FORMER FIREMAN IS ARRESTED

Raymond Ratekin Accused of Stealing and Damaging Auto

Raymond Ratekin, a former member of the fire department, was arrested Tuesday by Sheriff Coons, on a warrant filed recently in the circuit court, charging him with vehicle taking. He is charged with having stolen an automobile from a man by the name of Frantz, living in West First street, who made the charges against him. He is alleged to have taken the car, damaged a wheel, and returned it to a place within a block of where it was stolen.

Ratekin, according to the officers, contends that he had been given permission to use the car, and had not stolen it. He was in jail today pending arraignment or release on bond.

BIBLE THOUGHT —FOR TODAY—

Bible Thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

The Master Builder: Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. Psalm 127:1.

Prayer: "The Lord is just, a Helper tried."

Prohibition and Health

With six and one-half years of prohibiton in the United States, the ordinary layman is speculating as to what effect prohibitoin has had on the health of the nation at large.

In other words, is national prohibition a detriment or a benefit to the health of the country? A discussion of this kind by medical authorities has been under way, but after all is said and done, the issue still remains unsolved.

In the controversy, an educator in Columbia University brings an array of medical evidence to prove that alcohol consumed even in moderation, not only is unnecessary to healthful human diet, but is injurious to brain, nerves and body.

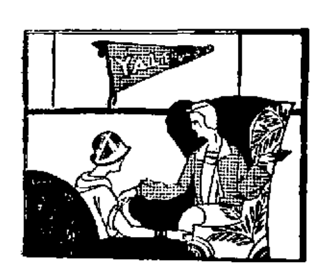
He cites statistics on the American death rate to show that prohibition, by lessening consumption of alcohol, has improved the general health in this country.

An educator from the University of Cincinnati, and a former president of the American Medical association, who concedes that excessive use of alcohol is harmful and may result fatally, presents other medical evidence which tends to show that alcohol helps to form the very tissues of our bodies, and is required in moderate quantities by most people to keep the human machine running smoothly.

While medical science is debating the quesiton, the layman may also be interested to know that life insurance companies hold highly important the alcoholic tendencies of an applicant as the part of a rigid medical examination. If life insurance companies, which are expert in matter of human mortality, make it a point to investigate an applicant's habits as to moderate or excessive drinking, then it shows clearly that they don't place much faith in the argument of the educator who asserts that alcohol builds body tissue.

On the contrary, insurance companies refuse to consider an applicant who is addicted to the use of alcohol, and every applicant is investigated by a disinterested person, unkown to the company's agents, as to his tastes for strong drink.

If an insurance company, after years of study on prohibition, won't take a risk with a person of alcoholic tendencies, then there is surely evidence for the layman to take into consideration, without any argument based on medical observations.



"So your son is on the football team. What position does he play?"

Fond Mother: "Well, he has one of the best positions. I believe he is one of the drawbacks."

No matter how good your position is, if you had an accident, an auto smashup or a bad fire it would certainly be a drawback. Get COMPLETE insurance protection from this agency of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Not To Be Postponed

Among educational campaigns being conducted under various auspices is one giving every man and every woman a reminder of the duty of making a will and of appointing competent and responsible executors. The importance of this should be plain, yet thousands die yearly without leaving wills. Under the circumstance, their property is disposed of according to state laws, which cannot undertake to deal with the families in accordance with individual requirements. Frequently injustice results, with much suffering entailed. This emphasizes the duty of making a will. Men and women should realize that only in this way can their estates be distributed as they would wish.

The chief trouble, however, is simply neglect. Some who realize their duty to have their wills drawn keep putting off the discharge of it to "another time." But a fatal accident or a sudden illness affecting their minds and rendering them mentally incompetent to the end may occur and, obviously, make it impossible to repair the neglect. While the normal expectation of those in their prime is to live "to three score and ten" or more, it is only common sense and common prudence to recognize the uncertainty of life.

Although the drawing of a will naturally takes into consideration the certainty of the coming of death some time to the testator, it should constantly be kept uppermost that the whole purpose of the instrument is the service of life: the care of the "dear ones" of the decedent who remain behind or the cause of humanity in general.

The drawing of a will ought to be recognized as a thing not to be "put off."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican
December 21, 1912

Merrill B. McDaniel, 21 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McDaniel, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock at his home near Henderson after a short illness from tuberculosis. He is survived by a widow and his parents.

Unless about forty dollars are contributed to the Daily Republican by next Monday night it will fall short of last year's total. The sum of $7.25 was added to the fund today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Logan entertaned a number of relatives at a family dinner at their home southeast of Rushville yesterday.

Adam V. Spivey, 53 years old, former postmaster and well known resident of this city died this morning about ten o'clock in the Sexton Sanitorium, following a second operation for gall stones. Mr. Spivey had been in a serious condition for the last two days and death was expected.

Mrs. Ulie Friend gave a shower last evening at the home of her father, William Harton, honoring Miss Nelle Adams whose marriage to Will Leach will take place in the near future.

Members of the Social club are making extensive arrangements for the New Year's ball which will be given Tuesday evening, Dec. 31, in the club house. The dance promises to be one of the society events of the season.

The Rushville high school team was defeated last night at Shelbyville by the overwhelming score of 37 to 4. The locals were outplayed and failed to make a single field goal during the entire game. The four points were the result of free throws by Griffin. Shelbyville has one of the best teams in the state and Rushville was lucky to come out as well as they did.

The three-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Powers of near Milroy is recovering from the effects of eating arsenic tablets which she discovered while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lyons.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Congressmen, who are subjected to contemptuous criticism both by intelligent persons who know what they're talking about and nitwits who don't, are often more to be pitied than blamed.

One phase of the system by which men and women are made into representatives is so queer as to be almost ridiculous.

Many of the current crop of congressmen, old and new, have spent much more time campaigning and waiting for their seats than they will now spend in said seats.

Long before the Congress met early this month, they had been forced to begin their campaigns for the next Congress, which assembles two years hence in December, 1929.

* * *

A CONGRESSMAN retains office 15 months after he is seated. Very often, his campaign had to be begun two years and more before he was seated. Thirteen months elapse between his election to the next Congress and frequently he began his campaign more than 13 months previous to the election, which means that numerous members of the Seventieth Congress had to step off the stump and onto the floor of the House.

For a specific example, take Rathbone of Illinois. Rathbone was elected a congressman-at-large in November, 1926, after being forced to get set late in 1925 for the April, 1926, primaries. On December 5, 1927, he took his seat. But months previously, he had to look to his political fences when Mayor Thompson of Chicago promised revenge for Rathbone's opposition in the mayoralty election.

In October, 1927, Mrs. Medill McCormick announced her candidacy and began a vigorous campaign which put his political life in jeopardy. Hence, Rathbone is and has for some time been working to win in the April, 1928, Illinois primary, after which he will have a six-month campaign for election ahead of him. If he is licked, he will go out of office a year from next March and Mrs. McCormick, or a Democrat, will come to the hill a year from next November.

All of which, among other things, places a discount on a candidate's campaign speeches. One who has already served may run largely on his record, but for one who would make promises for his next term or for his non-incumbent opponent, it is a difficult thing to talk to the voters sincerely and convincingly about what he will do from 15 to 25 months ahead.

If he wins, then even after his election he must sit and twiddle his thumbs while the defeated incumbent sits through another session of Congress and casts "lame duck" votes which need take no inspiration from the wishes of his constituents who defeated him. He can't possibly make a legislative promise which he can begin to put into effect in less than 13 months, even if he announces a new platform on election eve, which he does not.

* * *

IN one year, or two, conditions obviously change. Issues aren't what they were. National or local sentiment may shift. And it may be too much to ask a self-respecting candidate to bind his mind and his vote for the more than three years that may elapse from the beginning of his campaign to the end of his term. Few protest this to the voters, however. Being principally concerned with getting in, most of them who face any trouble over nomination or election will promise almost anything.

Senators are elected for six-year terms instead of two-year terms as representatives are. Every short session, of course, finds some of them in their seats although they have already been voted out.

The system, of course, is not so tough on the individual senator who meets competition as for the individual congressman who must fight for his seat. Nevertheless, the proposed Norris amendment which would cut out the "lame duck" session and bring elected members of both houses into session within two months of their election has often been passed by the Senate, but has never even been voted on by the House.

Hittin' 'Em

"Its always darkest, just before the dawn," says B-B Shots up at Marion, where his team has lost five starts this season. Perhaps that same thing may apply down here—or at least we're looking for that silver lining behind the cloud.

✣—H—✣

If there is really a Santa Claus, this is the week for him to appear!

✣—H—✣

Doc Doe, down at Greensburg has conducted four post mortems this season. Probably he will be able to tell us after Friday night, just what the trouble with the Lions might be; or we might be able to tell him how Greensburg can improve in order to meet the Lions in February.

✣—H—✣

MAKE A XMAS TREE OUT OF THAT COURT HOUSE TOWER MAPLE FRIDAY NIGHT LIONS!

✣—H—✣

Plenty Room Friday

Judging from reports there will be plenty of room for all fans who wish to attend the game in Greensburg. The fans down there have been dropping out, although the Strohlers have been winning games. Greensburg, you remember, has a gym a great deal like the one here.

✣—H—✣

Eleven seats remain in the bus to Greensburg Friday night. Fare 75 cents. Leaves here 5:45 p. m.

✣—H—✣

FAN CITES SEVERAL CAUSES FOR LOST INTEREST

Concerning the recent comment offered in this column about poor attendance at games, not only here but in other cities, there has been much talk as to the whys and wherefores of the apparent lost interest. Following is a list of reasons, submitted by a local fan, one who knows his basketball:

1. Too many gymnasiums in the townships.
2. Too many games each Friday night that attract attention from fans who might attend here.
3. Not consistent winners.
4. Admission too much for quality of basketball played.
5. Gymnasium located too far from main section of city, which keeps people away, especially in bad weather.
6. Attendance poor at independent games, due to the fact that they start too late. High school games begin on time.
7. Independents charge too much for the class of teams which they usually play—those from Indianapolis.
8. Apparent indifferent attitude which high school players show against teams. If they win, it's all well and good, and if they lose, its the same way. If they get ahead a few points, its good policy to stop playing and let the other team catch up.

✣—H—✣

While the above points may include some of the reasons why basketball is not as popular in every community as it was a few years ago, yet the state tourney will turn away the crowds. This might be an indication that the basketball interest demands class—real genuine talent.

✣—H—✣

WATCHES NEW GYM UNDER CONSTRUCTION

A. R. Trester, secretary of the I. H. S. A. A., and sometimes called the czar of Indiana basketball, is watching the erection of the new gymnasium in Attica with more than usual passing attention. Coffing's idea of installing moveable baskets so that tests could be made as to whether the 72 foot floor is long enough or the 90 foot court would be better is what Trester is keeping an eye on. Trester is one of these wise owls who is not set in his ideas. Anytime something that will help the organzation, Trester is for it.—Hardwood Hits in Greencastle Herald.

✣—H—✣

While Mr. Trester is watching over the distance between goal posts, he might for the benefit of Rushville, also consider making the hoops larger and the balls smaller!

✣—H—✣

YOU'RE TOO LATE CARTHAGE!

Charlottesville has at last been defeated. Wilkinson turned the trick, 47 to 39. Carthage was expecting to turn the trick this week.

✣—H—✣

Webb and Moscow had a game scheduled this week, but on account of the holidays and being unable to get a gym, the game has been delayed.

✣—H—✣

NEW COLUMN STARTED

"Crumbs" is the title of a new basketball column to appear in the Wabash Plain Dealer. The full title is Crumbs from basketball—its bred in Indiana. So now we can follow the teams up north.

✣—H—✣

After the Frankfort game Friday night we could have died happily, with never another look at a basketball contest.—Sport Shorts, Anderson.

✣—H—✣

BASKETBALL AS IS:

Greencastle, home of the Tiger Cubs, the Putnam county court house and DePauw University, smacks the Lord High Alicetown 27-18! By nine points, mind you. And Vincennes had just defeated Washington!—Bedford Mail.

✣—H—✣

MAYBE WE WILL HE-HAW SOME TIME

Richmond fans are hee-hawing loudly at the expense of Rushville. Morton of Richmond, which like Lebanon has been used largely as a football by opposing basketball teams this year, lost several games by top heavy scores before playing Rushville. Morton's record caused a Rushville scribe to say: "The Big Ten isn't so big after all." But that was before Morton went down to Rushville and crocked the Lions Saturday night.—Between Games, Lebanon.

✣—H—✣

ALMOST THE SEVENTH WONDER—

And Hittin' 'em gets another jolt. The lowly Morton Red Devils of Richmond, pull the David-Goliath act and slay Rushville 28 to 24. Will wonders never cease to cease!—Markin' 'em up, Newcastle.

✣—H—✣

Milroy will go over to New Salem for a game Friday night, and as Milroy has had a two week vaction, they will be hard to stop, but New Salem will give them a hard game before the 40 minutes have passed.

✣—H—✣

FIRESTONE TEAM HAS A PERFECT RECORD

Unless Marmons Mar It Tonight, Ohio Invaders Will Come Here Unblemished

BOASTS STAR PLAYERS

The famous Firestone team of Akron, Ohio, which will appear here Thursday night in a basketball game against the local Independents, will play the fast Marmon team in Indianapolis tonight, and unless the Marmon team wins from them, they will come here with a perfect record for the State Champs to attempt to block.

More recent word from their manager today stated that the Firestone team last week defeated Akron University, 39 to 22 and defeated Wooster college 35 to 22. The manager stated that they could just as easily doubled their score on either of those teams. One other victory this season was that against Muskingum college, 33 to 27, and last Saturday Muskingum was defeated by Ohio State university, one point, 27 to 26, which indicates that the team coming here Thursday night is far above most college teams.

The visitors will line-up with Gant and Wakefield at forwards; Winston at center; Griggs and Nyikos at guards. In addition they carry three or four subs who are highly rated. The Rushville team will present their usual line-up and will probably start with Lakin and Richeson, forwards; Alexander center; McNamara and Kaufman guards. In addition there will be Robinson, Osborne, Brickler and Hodges for subs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Oster and family entertained with a farewell dinner party Tuesday evening at their home in Avondale, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Russel Walker and daughter Reah June and Mrs. A. W. Wilkinson who are leaving soon for Flint, Mich., where Mr. and Mrs. Walker will make their future home. Mrs. Wilkinson will spend a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bernard Benson of that place. Mrs. Benson was formerly Miss Gertrude Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Veatch, Mrs. Berniece Ellison and daughter Geraldine and son Lowell Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dearinger. SEVEN TRAPPED MINERS FOUND DEAD AFTER BLAST

Spark From Motor Believed Cause Of Fatal Explosion In Mine At Stiritz, Illinois

RESCUE SQUADS AT WORK

Johnston City, Ill., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Seven miners who were trapped by explosion in the Cosgrove-Meehan coal mine at Stiritz last night were found dead more than a mile underground on the 250 foot level, officials of the company reported today.

Cause of the explosion had not been officially determined, but experienced miners expressed the opinion that a spark from Lavender's motor may have ignited gas. Bodies of the seven men were badly burned.

Rescue crews from here and nearby counties were at work today under the direction of county mine inspector J. W. Plumlee and state director of mines A. D. Lewis. Bodies of the dead men were expected to be brought to the surface before noon.

All but one of the seven men—Lavender—were married and leave families. Scores of miners' relatives gathered at the shaft during the night waiting for word from below. Deputy sheriffs on duty preserved perfect order.

The mine in which the tragedy occurred was opneed in 1916 and employs 550 men. It has been worked continuously since the recent renewal of the Jacksonville wage scale, and last night's explosion was the first in its history.

Delay in bringing out the bodies, it was said, was caused by damage to the brattice and drops in the shaft at the time of the explosion.

TO DEVOTE LIFE TO A BATTLE ON PROHIBITION

George Remus Declares He Will Fight To Remove Volstead Law From The Nation's Statutes

WILL PROVE HIS SANITY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 21—(U.P.)—George Remus, if and when he finally is freed, intends to devote the remainder of his life to removal of the Volstead act from the nation's statutes.

Found not guilty of the murder of his wife "on the sole ground of insanity," Remus may remain in jail as long as a month before his case is called before William H. Leuders, probate judge. In probate court Remus must prove that he now is sane, else be confined to a state hospital.

"But I am sane enough," Remus assured the correspondent.

"Give me a few hours with medical books and I can make a fool of any alienist in the land. Jurors returned this verdict only because the court would not permit an unqualified acquittal."

Remus, raised to national prominence by his huge bootlegging activities, said he loathed the laws that made him wealthy.

"Prohibition made me rich but the same law brought me more horror than any other man alive," Remus said. "I have read Zola; I have read Tolstoi,—or at least of him—and no writer can imagine such torments as I have known."

RED-HAIRED GIRL IS ATTRACTION AT TRIAL

Spectators Take Lunches To Carroll Circuit Court Room For Lloyd Kimble Hearing

TESTIMONY IS STARTED

Delphi, Ind., Dec. 21—(U.P.)—Spectators at the trial here of Lloyd Kimble charged with the murder of Daniel Sink brought lunches into the Carroll circuit courtroom today to make sure they would have good seats in the expectation that red-haired Jeanette Taylor, who "told on" Kimble, and who is the state chief witness, will take the stand today.

Introduction of testimony was started by the prosecution Tuesday. But it was merely a curtain-raiser—the witnesses identifying photographs of the ruins of Sink's home where his charred body was found the morning of Aug. 24 last. The crowd is waiting for the testimony of the Taylor woman, who told authorities in accusing Kimble that she slipped from bed where she lay beside her farm hand husband,, Jesse Taylor, and accompanied Kimble to the Sink home.

State witnesses heard so far include Grocer C. Sink, son of the dead man; sheriff Riley Sink and deputy sheriff Frank Sink, distant relatives; Mrs. Mary Milroy, who testified as to the arrangement of the Sink home at the time it was sold to Sink by her first husband, A. C. Cohee, in 1919.

Charles Baker of Camden, the undertaker who buried Sink, testified there was evidence of a blow on the head. Mrs. Taylor told authorities Kimble struck Sink on the head and then set the house afire.

CHRISTMAS LASTS
365 Days a Year If You Give an Easy

MAKE THIS A REAL CHRISTMAS FOR MOTHER OR WIFE

The New Easy Washer is the most amazing machine ever invented to wash clothes. It has two tubs but no wringer. The small tub dries one batch of clothes while the large tub washes another batch. No need to postpone your washing for a clear day, because the new Easy will dry the clothes ready for immediate ironing. No water to handle; no water wasted. The precious soap suds are returned to the wash tub; the rinse and blue water go back into the stationary rinse and blueing tubs. The Easy even empties itself when you are all through. Does twice the work in half the time of ordinary washers.

THE WAY IS PLAINLY MARKED

The tire-buyer of today can easily get lost in the maze of selling competition. At every turn, he is met by confusing claims and special propositions.

No wonder he is bewildered. With everyone claiming to have the best, how is he to choose wisely?

One outstanding fact will guide him. It can not be said about any other tire:

MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND

Goodyear Tires hold their place on merit alone. Their popularity increases steadily year after year.

Goodyear makes more tires than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear uses 50% more rubber than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear makes the tire that is popularly known as "The World's Greatest Tire" — the long-wearing, powerful, tractive balloon tire with the new-type All Weather Tread.

We feel a great satisfaction in representing a manufacturer and a product of such unquestioned leadership.

We take pride in giving the World's Best Service on the World's Greatest Tire — seeing that you get out of it all the extra mileage built into it at the factory.

Come in and let us show you the New Goodyears. We have your size, and your type, at your price.

Movies.

Marion Davis At Her Best

"The Fair Co-ed," which opened a 2 day engagement yesterday at the Princess Theatre, is the sort of film that makes one optimistic for pictures. In fact, it gives the picturegoer much more than he can rightfully hope to see in one film production.

It shows the charming Marion Davis at her best—and that's some best!

It is a screen vehicle, magnificently handled from a directorial angle and with a cast of players that works hard—and successfully to give every ounce of their support to the star.

Marion has the role of an American co-ed and she looks the part as she puts it over in a most convincing manner.

Johnny Mack Brown, who appears opposite the star, works as zealously on celluloid as he used to work with the pigskin when he was star halfback a couple of season's back on the University of Alabama's football team. Johnny has looks, screen personality and talent. He shows all three and has the advantage of having a new face for confirmed movie-goers to gaze upon.

Jane Winton plays convincingly as the sympathetic heavy and Thelma Hill does some good work as a dumb co-ed pal of the heroine.

Sam Wood should be congratulated on the fine manner he has handled this production from a directorial standpoint. He has even outdone what he did when directing "Rookies." The picture is based on the play by George Ade and Gustav Luders.

"In A Moment of Temptation"

You will enjoy "In a Moment of Temptation."

Whatever may be your opinion as to the literary quality of Laura Jean Libbey's novels, it is an undeniable fact that her stories indicate an unusual insight into the hearts and feelings of humanity in genearl, and "In a Moment of Temptation," which opened a 2 day engagement today at the Castle Theatre, fully lives up to the author's reputation.

Leading roles in this production are in the hands of Charlotte Stevens and Cornelius Keefe, and both acquit themselves with high honors —the former as the little shopgirl who is wrongly imprisoned for theft, and the latter as a young man of wealth whose interest in her gradually ripens into deepest love.

"In a Moment of Temptation" is also interesting in that it marks the return to the screen of Marie Walcamp, formerly the serial queen of motion pictures, but for the past seven years devoted wholly to housewifely duties. Tom Ricketts plays one of the most prominent roles in the picture—that of "Grandpa" Gage, who sits in his wheeled chair and, unknown to his domineering granddaughter, rules the destinies of his household.

Other important roles are played by Kit Guard, John McKinnon and Grant Withers, and the photoplay has been well directed by Philip Carle.

Of its kind, "In a Moment" is a little gem.
